

SCRAPBOOKING

CRITERIA FOR JUDGING SCRAPBOOKING

GENERAL APPEARANCE

- Does the scrapbook item meet entry requirements
- Is it entered in the correct category
- Date of construction, fair year to fair year
- Are there any major design problems
- Is it appropriate for intended use
- Is the appearance neat
- Is the item clean
- Does the glue show

DESIGN

- Are the design elements in proportion
- Is the design in relationship to everything else
- Is placement of color well chosen
- Does the design used have visual weight
- Does it attract attention
- Does design cover area
- Is item visually appealing
- Have a sense of humor

WORKMANSHIP

- Is the design straight and even, balanced
- Is it uniform in size for use intended
- Are items used compatible with each other
- Is the item ready for intended use